

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC) are men and women of the parish community who, by their mandation, assist the ordinary ministers (Bishop, Priest, or Deacon) in the distribution of Holy Communion, both body and/or blood, to the laity. This assistance may take place during the Mass or in taking Communion out to those who are unable to attend Mass due to physical disability. To become an Extraordinary Minister, please contact the Minister Coordinator. He or she will advise you of the next training session for your certification and schedule your Mass times.
