

Children's Religious Education assists parents in helping their children grow more aware of God and develop their own relationship with Jesus, while also learning and understanding Catholic beliefs, prayers, and identity.

For further information, please contact St. Thomas the Apostle Parish Religious Education coordinator, Martha Topete, through the Parish office at: 530.533.0262